

Jesus Palomino Jr.

Coal miner

Jesus Palomino Jr., born May 7, 1926, passed away Nov. 18, 2010 in Chandler, Ariz. He was the beloved husband of Nan Palomino and father of Christina Martin. He will be missed. He was raised in Dawson, living in Raton since 1988. He worked in the coal mine in Raton for a short period before coming to California and working for Rocketdyne, where he retired in 1987. He will be missed.

He is survived by wife Nan Palomino, married for 48 years, living in Arizona; daughter Christina Martin, California; grandson Richard Weddle; stepchildren Pam Vanvliet, Mark Shirley, Steven Shirley, Cynthia Anderson, all of California, and Linda Gonce of Arizona; siblings Ben, Joe, David, Chris, and Cicilia Palomino.

He was preceded in death by siblings Tony, Mike, Carlos, and Luise Palomino. His parents were long standing residents of Raton, Jesus Palomino Sr. and Josepha Palomino.

He had a long history in Raton with the Kiwanis and St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

Source: Raton Range, Raton, NM; December 7, 2010