T. L. KINNEY LAID TO REST IN TRINIDAD CEMETERY

The funeral of T. L. Kinney was held from the Dawson Opera House Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, after which the body was taken to Trinidad, where burial was made in the family plot in the Trinidad cemetery.

At Dawson simple and impressive funeral services were held which were in charge of a committee composed of the members of the Masonic, Knights of Pythias and Elks lodges of which he was a member. The opera house was filled to overflowing with friends who came to pay their last respect to one of Dawson's pioneer citizens. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Russell and several selections of music were beautifully sung by a mixed quartet. Around the casket there was a great bank of beautiful floral offerings which had been presented by a legion of friends. D. G. Secrest, Frank Shelton, Louis Savio, A. M. Van Dyke, Dr. F. C. Diver, W. G. Moore, T. C. Hill, J. J. Laubach, Enrique Mares and W. T. Rush, personal friends of Mr. Kinney, acted as pallbearers, and members of the Masonic, Knights of Pythias and Elks lodges formed an honorary escort.

Following the service at Dawson, the funeral cortege passed to Trinidad, where members of the various Masonic bodies of that city joined the procession to the cemetery.

At Trinidad members of the Scottish Rite acted as pall bearers and the Trinidad Commandery formed the honorary escort. Services at the grave were conducted by the Blue Lodge Masons of Trinidad.

Obituary.

T. L. Kinney, one of the oldest residents of Dawson, died at his office in the opera house Wednesday afternoon, March 28th, following a shock from which he never regained consciousness. He was in his 51st year.

His career as a faithful employee of the Phelps Dodge Corporation, his private and public life, was closely linked with the progress of the town of Dawson, in which he spent almost a quarter of a century.

Faithful to the end, death overtook him in the performance of his duty, diligent in the work which was his to do.

T. L. Kinney was born in Newark, Indiana, September 17th, 1873 and died in Dawson, New Mexico, March 28th, 1924, at the age of 50 years, 6 months and 9 days. At about five years of age he came West with his parents and the family home was established in Starkville, Colo., where he received his early education. His first employment was as a clerk with the Santa Fe railroad at Starkville. His advancement in the clerical field was rapid. He was chief clerk at Madrid, New Mexico, and later for the Colorado Fuel and Iron company at Walsenburg. In 1903 Mr. Kinney came to Dawson to accept a similar position at the time W. P. Thompson was general manager. From 1903 he was identified with the development of Dawson, being rewarded with promotions to positions of trust and responsibility, holding the position of Town Supervisor since 1908.

Mr. Kinney was prominent in the lodge circles of his home community and throughout the state. He was formerly a member of the Gate City Masonic Lodge at Raton, and was the first secretary of the Vermajo Lodge No. 36, A. F. & A. M. of Dawson. At the time of his death he was the only resident charter member of the Dawson Lodge. He was also a member of the Scottish Rite Consistory of New Mexico, and a member of the Knight Templars of Raton. He was the first Worthy Patron of the Order of the Eastern Star of Dawson. Among other fraternal organizations, he was an honored member of Dawson City Lodge No. 30, Knights of Pythias, and a Past Grand Chancellor of the Domain of New Mexico. With the exception of one year, he attended every session of the New Mexico Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge during the past twenty years. He was also a member of Raton Lodge No. 865, E. P. O. Elks.

For eighteen years Mr. Kinney was Justice of the Peace of the Dawson precinct and for nineteen years was secretary of the School Board. He was also a prominent figure in the political life of his community and the state, being precinct chairman of the Republican party and a delegate to the recent state convention at Santa Fe.

Mr. Kinney is survived by his wife and two small children of Dawson; a son, Ted Kinney of Bisbee, Arizona, and two married daughters, Mrs. Cecil Long of Alamogordo, New Mexico, and Mrs. Charles McGowan of Bisbee, Arizona.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Russell at the Dawson Opera House Saturday morning, and burial was made in the Trinidad cemetery.

MORE TREES TO BEAUTIFY DAWSON HOMES

An order has been placed for a limited number of fruit trees to be used in beautifying the homes of Dawson. Those desiring trees should place their application with the Welfare Department immediately.

The recommendation was approved by the local management of the Phelps Dodge Corporation and within a few years there should be fruit bearing trees in the yards of numerous Dawson homes.
