

LYLE E. SCOTT, 71, AIR FORCE RETIREE OF FENN

- Nov 5, 1991

COTTONWOOD A memorial service for Fenn, Idaho, resident Lyle Elmer Scott will be conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Seventh-day Adventist Church at Grangeville. His brother-in-law, Lewis Norwood of Opelike, Ala., will officiate.

Scott, a retired U.S. Air Force master sergeant, died of cancer Saturday at St. Mary's Hospital at Cottonwood. He was 71.

He was born March 14, 1920, at Dawson, N.M., to Thom as E. and Janie Scott. He attended school at Dawson, where he graduated from high school.

After completing his schooling, he entered the U.S. Navy, serving at Pearl Harbor and in the Pacific Theaters during World War II.

He married Martha L. James in 1946 at Olathe, Kan.

After their marriage, he joined the U.S. Air Force, serving for 13 years, including a tour during the Korean War.

He retired in 1962 as a master sergeant.

Martha L. Scott died in 1962.

Scott married June Norwood July 3, 1980, at Coeur d'Alene.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing and the outdoors.

Survivors include his wife of Fenn; two sons, James L. Scott of Marysville, Wash., and Thomas L. Scott of Albuquerque, N.M.; a daughter, Judy Bedford of Cuervo, N.M.; a stepson, Don Polk of Dallas; two stepdaughters, Kathy Elmendorf of Keene, Texas, and Sandy Fahringer of Clarks Summit, Penn.; a brother, Owen E. Scott of Arlington, Texas, 10 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

A sister, Earleane Rainwater, and a granddaughter, died previously.

Memorials may be sent to the St. Mary's Hospital Fund at Cottonwood.

Uhlorn Funeral Home at Cottonwood is in charge of arrangements.
